As we enter 2012, APIPA, UBIC Taiwan (<http://www.ubictw.com>) and Gibson Dunn (<http://www.gibsondunn.com>) invite you participate in an informative seminar addressing the newly-reformed U.S. patent law, with a dedicated session focusing on divided infringement and indirect infringement and another session dedicated to the changing face and tactics of non-practicing patent enforcement entities. In addition, the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act will be addressed in this seminar to raise the awareness of Taiwan industries regarding this issue. Last but not the least, a practical and timely approach to address costly eDiscovery will be presented by UBIC Taiwan.

Gibson Dunn is a top-tier U.S. law firm and has won many prestigious awards in the U.S. legal community. In 2010, Gibson Dunn was named the Litigation Department of the Year, and described by the American Lawyer Magazine as "Game Changers." The firm has over 1000 attorneys in 17 offices worldwide and practices in 44 areas. Mr. Y. Ernest Hsin and Mr. Jason C. Lo are experienced IP litigators of the firm. Mr. Winston Chan was a U.S. federal prosecutor in the Eastern District of New York for many years before he joined Gibson Dunn recently.

UBIC Taiwan is a subsidiary of UBIC Inc., a tier-1 global Asian language eDiscovery vendor. Paul Chu, who is the country manager of UBIC Taiwan, will present the justification and advantages of a local eDiscovery vendor in Taiwan.

講者簡介 About the Speakers

Y. Ernest Hsin

Ernest Hsin is a partner in the Palo Alto office of Gibson Dunn & Crutcher. He specializes in intellectual property litigation, primarily patent litigation, as well as intellectual property counseling and licensing. Mr. Hsin has extensive experience litigating intellectual property cases in the computer, software, Internet, electronic device, semiconductor, telecommunications, and video game industries, for both U.S. and foreign clients. He regularly represents leading technology companies in some of their most significant intellectual property disputes. Companies he has represented include: Amazon.com, Apple, Hewlett-Packard, Electronic Arts, Sharp, Viacom, Cablevision, St. Jude Medical, Emulex, Expedia, Tessera, Nortel Networks, and CNET (Interactive). Mr. Hsin has litigated cases before numerous federal district courts, appellate courts, including the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and the U.S. International Trade Commission. Mr. Hsin received a Juris Doctor from Columbia Law School in 1998 and a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1995. Mr. Hsin speaks Mandarin Chinese.

Jason C. Lo

Jason C. Lo is a partner at Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher where he practices intellectual property law, with a focus on patent and trade secrets litigation. He has successfully represented leading companies in various industries, including the video game, semiconductor, military defense, and pharmaceutical industries. He has litigated high-stakes patent infringement cases in courts throughout the United States, as well as the U.S. International Trade Commission. Companies he has represented include: Amazon.com, Lawson Software, Zynga, Viacom, and Johnson & Johnson. Mr. Lo graduated cum laude from Harvard Law School in 2001. He earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science and a Minor in Accounting from UCLA in 1998. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Lo served as a law clerk to The Honorable Mariana R. Pfaelzer in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. He speaks Mandarin Chinese and Cantonese.

Winston Y. Chan

Winston Y. Chan is of counsel in Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher's San Francisco office. He is an experienced trial and appellate attorney, and is a member of the firm's White Collar Defense and Investigations, Securities Enforcement, Health Care and Life Sciences, and Antitrust and Trade Regulation Practice Groups. Mr. Chan previously served as a federal prosecutor, where he investigated and prosecuted a wide range of business crimes, including Foreign Corrupt Practices Act violations, hedge fund improprieties, insider trading, accounting fraud, market manipulation, and fraudulent offerings of securities. Additionally, he taught a clinical course at Columbia Law School on the principles of federal prosecution and a first-year lawyering course at Fordham University School of Law. Mr. Chan earned his undergraduate degree from Yale University, and his Juris Doctor from Yale Law School. Following law school, Mr. Chan served as a law clerk for a U.S. federal district judge, and then for a U.S. federal appeals judge. He speaks conversational Mandarin Chinese and Taiwanese.

Paul T. M. Chu

Paul T.M. Chu is the country manager of UBIC Taiwan. He graduated from UC Berkeley with a master degree in Computer Sciences and Electrical Engineering. Since then, He has worked in the Silicon Valley for 30 years with two successful start-ups. He is an entrepreneur in the 90s. Prior to joining UBIC, he is the president of D3global, a patent service company.

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher 吉布森 頓恩

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP is a full-service global law firm, with more than 1,000 lawyers in 17 offices worldwide, including New York, Los Angeles, Washington D.C., Dallas, Denver, San Francisco, Palo Alto, Orange County, Century City, Paris, London, Munich, Brussels, Dubai, São Paulo, Hong Kong and Singapore. We have a strong and growing transactional practice in Europe, Latin America, MENA and Asia. We are recognized for excellence in legal services, and our lawyers routinely represent clients in their most complex and high-profile transactions and litigations worldwide. Gibson Dunn also is recognized as one of the premier litigation firms in the world and regularly represents Asian and other clients in court (including the U.S. Supreme Court), arbitrations and other forums in connection with matters of the highest significance.

The Gibson Dunn Approach

- We focus on Client Service: Gibson Dunn is one of the BTI Client Service 30, a list of “the 30 law firms clients say deliver the absolute best client service.” For 2011, BTI asked more than 300 corporate counsel at Fortune 1000 companies to rank firms based on client focus, commitment to help, understanding client’s business and value for the dollar.
- We actively promote a “one firm” culture: Although we have more than 1,000 lawyers in 17 major cities worldwide, Gibson Dunn operates as a single firm in its practice and culture.
- We understand our client’s needs: Lawyers who understand their clients’ goals and challenges are best able to assist clients through significant transactions as well as to work with them on an ongoing basis providing counsel and advice. We study our clients’ businesses and their needs in order to be “proactive partners,” not mere “service providers.”

Recent Accolades

- Named the 2010 Litigation Department of the Year by The American Lawyer. In awarding this honor, the magazine dubbed Gibson Dunn’s litigators the “Game Changers,” adding, “when other firms and conventional strategies come up short, clients in deep trouble turn to Gibson Dunn for fresh, aggressive thinking and innovative rescues.”
- American Lawyer ranked Gibson Dunn 4th on its 2011 A-List of the nation’s law firm elite.
- The Best Lawyers in America 2012 identified 105 Gibson Dunn partners as leading lawyers in 44 practice areas, based on peer review.
- The U.S. News Media Group and Best Lawyers awarded Gibson Dunn 91 top-tier practice area rankings in their 2011-2012 Best Law Firms survey.
- Chambers USA: America’s Leading Lawyers for Business 2011, an independent, research-based survey, awarded Gibson Dunn 204 rankings, with the firm and its attorneys achieving a total of 53 first-tier rankings, 15 of which were firm practice group rankings.
- Chambers Global Directory 2011 recognized Gibson Dunn with 22 firm rankings and 33 individual rankings in Latin America, the Middle East, Belgium, France, Singapore, the United Arab Emirates, the United Kingdom and the United States.
- Corporate Board Member magazine ranked Gibson Dunn fifth in its 2011 annual GC Top 25 Law Firms survey, based on a survey of 128 general counsels asked to name the outside law firms they most admire
- The 2012 edition of IFLR1000, a guide to the world’s leading financial law firms, recognized Gibson Dunn in six U.S. categories, and eleven U.S. partners were recognized as leading lawyers. Gibson Dunn’s global offices and lawyers also were recognized in several categories.
- PLC Which Lawyer? – Global 50 named Gibson Dunn one of the Global 50 in its 2010 Yearbook. The Global 50 are recognized as the “law firms that received the greatest depth and breadth of recommendations.” Gibson Dunn also achieved 58 individual lawyer endorsements in various practice areas.
